Dear Michael:

I apologize for keeping you waiting. As it turns out my plans to replace Mike are in a holding pattern. And while I am told I can replace him, I can not guarantee any job stability six months down the line. At this point I would rather wait until I can make someone a better offer than that! Once again, I am sorry.

It was a pleasure meeting you, and once again, thank-you for your interest in WRVA News.

Sincerely,

Deanna Malone
